Slide notes:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar containing "http://127.0.0.1/bridge/q1552734860A.html". The page title is "Gummy Hoops Inc". Below the title, there is a header with "hello@gummyhoops.com" on the left and "www.gummyhoops.com" on the right. The main content area displays a table titled "Warehouse Business Units". The table has three columns: "Key", "Name", and "Access Level". The data rows list various business units with their corresponding keys and access levels. At the bottom of the table, it says "17 record(s) listed".
